

D7A – EQUIPMENT MECHANIC
FEBRUARY 7, 2002

Title/Class Code	Education/Experience/Licensure/Certification	Substitutions
EQUIPMENT MECHANIC I  D7A1TX	One year of experience inspecting, servicing, and maintaining automotive vehicles. Specific licenses, registrations or certificates may be required for some positions.	Satisfactory completion of a formalized apprenticeship program, or higher level non-correspondence course work from an accredited vocational or technical school in automotive mechanics, heavy equipment mechanics or auto body repair appropriate to the work assignment may substitute for the required experience on a year-for-year basis. At the agency's discretion, demonstrated proficiency on position competencies may substitute for the required experience.
EQUIPMENT MECHANIC II  D7A2XX	Two years of experience inspecting, servicing, and maintaining automotive vehicles. Specific licenses, registrations or certificates may be required for some positions.	Satisfactory completion of a formalized apprenticeship program, or higher level non-correspondence course work from an accredited vocational or technical school in automotive mechanics, heavy equipment mechanics or auto body repair appropriate to the work assignment may substitute for the required experience on a year-for-year basis. At the agency's discretion, demonstrated proficiency on position competencies may substitute for the required experience.
EQUIPMENT MECHANIC III  D7A3XX	Four years of progressively responsible experience inspecting, servicing and maintaining automotive vehicles or heavy equipment with current proficiency at the journey level. Specific licenses, registrations or certificates may be required for some positions.	Satisfactory completion of a formalized apprenticeship program, or higher level non-correspondence course work from an accredited vocational or technical school in automotive mechanics, heavy equipment mechanics or auto body repair appropriate to the work assignment may substitute for the required experience on a year-for-year basis. At the agency's discretion, demonstrated proficiency on position competencies may substitute for the required experience.
EQUIPMENT MECHANIC IV  D7A4XX	Three years of journey level highly specialized and technical equipment mechanics experience appropriate to the work assignment. Specific licenses, registrations or certificates may be required for some positions.	At the agency's discretion, demonstrated proficiency on position competencies may substitute for the required experience.